

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)-Consultancy and Training

1. What services do you offer?

At Access SEN we are an alternative provision for children and young adults aged 5-25 who are either out of education or require extra help around education (see separate FAQ's).. We also offer strong consultancy, bespoke training, and practical support for families, schools, and professionals working with children with special educational needs (SEN). Services include curriculum guidance, whole-school strategies, staff development, and individual student support.

2. Who can access your services?

Our services are designed for families, educators, SENCOs, school leaders, and other professionals supporting children with complex or additional needs.

3. Do you offer training for parents?

Yes! We offer tailored, practical training sessions designed specifically for parents. Our sessions cover key topics such as toilet training, sensory regulation, and understanding behaviour, helping you feel more confident and equipped to support your child's needs.

We also host free monthly events that provide an introductory overview of different topics. For those who want to explore subjects in greater depth, we offer enhanced, in-depth training sessions available at a small cost.

4. Can you visit schools or settings in person?

Yes, we can deliver in-person consultations, observations, and training, depending on location. We also offer virtual sessions for convenience and to expand our coverage.

5. Do you work with early years settings?

Absolutely. We support early years settings with tailored strategies, training, and guidance specific to younger children's developmental needs.

6. What is included in your training sessions?

Our training sessions include practical strategies, evidence-based practices, and resources to implement in daily routines or professional settings.

7. How long are the training sessions?

Training sessions are flexible and vary depending on the topic. For example, our parent-focused training sessions typically last 45 minutes to 1 hour, whereas our professional training sessions are typically longer.

8. How do I book a consultation or training session?

Contact us via email admin@accesssenconsultancy.com , phone 07711055427, or on our website contact form. We'll discuss your needs and arrange a session that suits you.

9. What areas do you cover?

We're based in Stockport but offer in-person services in the surrounding areas and virtual services across the UK.

10. Do you offer free consultations?

Yes, we offer a free 30-minute consultation to discuss your needs and explore how we can support you.

11. What makes your approach unique?

We combine professional expertise with personal experience, ensuring our strategies are both evidence-based and practical for real-world application. We also have a large team of professionals who vary in their specialism to ensure we have a wide offer.

12. Can you help with transitions to new settings?

Yes, we provide tailored support for transitions, helping children, families, and schools prepare for and navigate changes successfully.

13. How much do your services cost?

Prices vary depending on the service. Contact us to discuss your needs, and we'll provide a clear and transparent quote. We typically charge £75 per hour, although this rate can be adjusted following consultation or as part of a bespoke consultancy package.

14. Do you offer ongoing support?

Yes, we can provide regular consultations, follow-ups, and additional training as needed to ensure sustained progress and support.
